More mercies for new returns of praise; and then these new returns will fetch in new mercies. If the end of one mercy were not the beginning of another, we were undone.—Henry.

GAMMON THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY
ATLANTA, GEORGIA.

AIMS AND METHODS

The aim of this school is to do practical work in helping men toward success in the ministry. Its course of study is broad and practical; its ideas are high; its work is thorough; its methods are fresh, systematic, clear and simple.

COURSE OF STUDY

The regular course occupies three years, and covers the lines of work in the several departments of theological instruction usually pursued in the leading

EXPENSES AND AID.
Tuition and room rent are free. The apartments for students are plainly furnished. Good board can be had for seven dollars per month. Buildings heated by steam.
Aid from loans without interest, and gifts of friends, are granted to deserving students who do their utmost in the line of self-help. No young man with grace, gifts, and energy, need be deprived of the advantages now opened to him in the line of self-help. For particulars address REV. WILBUR F. THURKILL, D.
