THE XENIA GAZETTE

POOR MARY HUESTON

WANT TO BECOME A HERALD

We have just published a new edition of the "Xenia Herald," the largest city paper in the state of Ohio. We invite all interested parties to contribute their articles to our publication. We promise to pay $100 for each article published. We also offer a prize of $500 for the best article submitted. We are looking forward to receiving your contributions.

LIVERY STABLES—OPENING DAY TO THE METERS.

J. R. COWIN, Editor and Publisher.

Brady & Steinbergs, The Leaders

48 E. Main St., Xenia.

earnestly solicit your patronage for the

THUMS, TEN CENTS PEH WEEK.

by Rev. W. O. Thompson, D. D., President of Miami University, Oxford, O., of To-day."

THE LARGE OIO GRAFT AFLOAT

of To-day."

by Rev. Dr. Hamlin, who went to the Church of the Covenant, and was there at 7 o'clock. He entered the sick room almost immediately, arriving there at 7 o'clock. Carrel to help her out, but without success.

DR. HOWARD N. HAMILTON.

Mr. Daniel Hamer died this morning by a member of Mr. Blaine's family. He conveyed his last wishes by the mouth, but did not speak. The functions of life seemed to stop. The proof is that he had hardly been conscious, and in a few moments he was unconscious.

BLACK AND WHITE.

It was realized that he must go. The time was 7 o'clock. The constable looked at the man. He was already dead. There was no hope. The man was carried to the hospital, and the hospital was notified. He was taken to the hospital, and the hospital was notified. He was taken to the hospital, and the hospital was notified.

ENTERTAINMENTS AT ALPHA.

There will be a review of entertainments at Alpha this season. It will consist of various forms of amusement, and the proceeds of the same will be devoted to a worthy object for the benefit of the high school.

PUBLISHED BY J. W. HEIN.

THE LARGEST OIO GRAFT AFLOAT

October 25, 1890.

THE LARGEST OIO GRAFT AFLOAT

October 25, 1890.

THE LARGEST OIO GRAFT AFLOAT

October 25, 1890.

THE LARGEST OIO GRAFT AFLOAT

October 25, 1890.

THE LARGEST OIO GRAFT AFLOAT

October 25, 1890.